

Research Homework

Next week we will start sharing the postcards that the year one families sent to school over the summer period. Our new destination that we will be learning about is 'Newquay' in Cornwall. We would like you to help prepare your child for next week's learning by doing some family research together. Please can they draw a picture and write anything that they find out about Newquay/ Cornwall.

Kind regards, Miss Clark and Miss Martinetz